

CANINE CONSULTATIONS

For anything and everything “DOG”, Full Stride Kennel’s staff is here to listen and guide you, from housebreaking your new puppy through the difficult time of saying goodbye to your best friend.

Sometimes just having someone to talk to is what you need, other times a new technique or different point of view is all that is necessary.

Before bringing your dog to board next, write down any concerns that you would like to discuss. The knowledge of Full Stride Kennel’s many years of canine experience are available at no charge to our clients.
